

George Contogeorgis

The idea of justice in Aristotle

A. Justice as a concept. The cosmosystemic environment of justice

1. Justice and the idea of justice
2. The idea of justice as the reason for differentiation according to type and according to form of politeia. The oligarchic and the democratic idea of justice
3. Social differentiation and ideas of justice
4. Equality as a measure of justice

B. Freedom and justice

1. The object of justice. Goods as the object of justice
2. The type and the rarity of goods. The objective and subjective rarity of goods.
3. Freedom as a good. The dimensions of freedom and the content of justice
4. Freedom as a fundamental component of justice. The justice of personal, social and political freedom
5. Freedom, justice and the question of war and peace

Conclusion: the anthropocentric cosmosystem and the idea of justice